

Transcript 'The Power of People' Transcript Master Soumy

He must understand that this is only the beginning, but I swear, if he persists in staying in power, his fall will be known to all.

Some people are arrogant and full of themselves, but the truth is only GOD's to tell.

Whose truth is it?

Some are pretentious, but only GOD has the power.

Who owns the truth?

You have all witnessed the fall of ATT's power (Amadou Toumani Touré, former president of Mali),

Fear, perplexity and anguish, what should Mali do?

The authorities support the vote, the imams are unanimous on this subject, Malians also ask for a vote,

Not all men in big boubous have integrity.

Not all men with rosaries are trustworthy people.

Not everyone who says "Inchallah" is a person of words.

The Malians have suffered for years.

Malians have been crying for years.

Malians have been hungry and thirsty for years.

Meanwhile, "Bourama" (pseudonym given to IBK by the population) is in better conditions, these children and relatives are making "world" birthdays.

While brave men of the army fall on battlefields,

School, health and safety are no longer the order of the day, embezzlement, corruption and greed have taken over.

Anyone who tries to complain will be abused!

A power like that of "Kaya Manka" (He was king from the 8th to the 13th century) has no future!

The power of a single president cannot be the end of the world!

If a person thinks he knows 100 things, let him think that another knows 1000!

Neither the policemen, nor the gendarmes, nor the military, nor the money of the state is yours!

Some people are arrogant and full of them, but the truth only belongs to GOD.

Whose is the truth?

Some are pretentious, but only GOD has the power.

Who owns the truth?

Some are arrogant and full of it, but the truth belongs only to GOD.

Who owns the truth?

Some are pretentious, but only GOD has the power.

The Malian people are submissive, determined and upright,

When the people stand up, imperialism falls into the sewer

Our teachers are on strike, the people rose up and "Kaya Makan" is gone!

We warned you, you did not see or hear it,

Permanent contempt above everyone else,

Moral of the story, arrogance leads to decay

Oh, what beautiful arrogance leading to decay!

My old man, how could you be so humiliated?

But my old man, you who know all the history of yesteryear!

My old man, allow me to speak to you in your language, otherwise the Romans, the Latins will be your ancestors!

Voice people, voice days, the voice of the people, is the voice of the GODs!

My people is king, he has dictated his law, after having spoken to you and shouted more than once.

Whoever thinks he is Julius Caesar must know about the fall of Napoleon is no coincidence!

We want to know who killed the 23 people?

I warned you that in case the wheel would turn, only your son Karim (Kari is the son of IBK) and you will be left!

It seems that Karim has been going in the wrong direction since the moment of the regime change,

Malians, there is no doubt, Mali can become what you want it to be!

Mentalities, behaviors and visions must change! We must change, we must be formatted!

Some people are pretentious, but only GOD has the power.

Who owns the truth?

Some are arrogant and full of it, but the truth belongs only to GOD.

Who owns the truth?

Some are pretentious, but only GOD has the power.